Breaking News: INFINITEE GROUP IS ISO 9001: 2015 CERTIFIED

The INFINITEE Group has become one of the youngest group of companies to have earned ISO 9001: 2015 certification in record time for both its subsidiaries INFINITEE USA and INFINITEE India and both its synergistic verticals of Supplying Naturals and Synthetics as well as Its Business Advisory Services.

The INFINITEE Group decided to embark on ISO certification, during the lean times caused by the COVID situation, as an opportunity to demonstrate to customers, partners, and all stakeholders that the organization has instituted international best practices and has demonstrated global competence. The companies went through a rigorous audit conducted by Alcumus ISOQAR, an UKAS accredited global ISO certification provider, well known for its integrity and technical expertise, and were successfully certified for offering Natural & Synthetic Products and Specialty ingredients for Personal Care, Home Care and Food industries globally as well as for designing, deploying & institutionalizing business advisory and management consulting services across industries and geographies. Each INFINITEE team member has not only internalized a process-oriented work ethic, but is also unwaveringly committed to our inspired quality policy that maybe found at <https://www.infiniteeusa.com/>

We take this opportunity to reiterate our commitment to our ever-growing group of customers, partners, and suppliers in Personal Care, Home Care, and Food industries as well as Business Advisory that we are will spare no effort to make your business grow to infinite heights. We want to say to each of our valued INFINITEE USA & INFINITEE INDIA customers and extended partners - please know that we did this for you !
